PRESENT

2009 PHOENIX RISING SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Each year a promising crop of future culinarians grow within our great state's high school culinary programs. These fine young men and women have the potential to become great and add their name to a long list of inspiring individuals like James Beard, Julia Child, Paula Dean, Michael Deihl, the list goes on and on.

The Phoenix Rising Scholarship Award for High School Students was created in a joint effort between the World Chefs' Scholarship Foundation (WCSF) and the Hospitality Education Foundation of Georgia (HEFG) to nurture a budding talent.

Eligibility requirements for this award:

- You are a Georgia high school student with a genuine interest in a culinary career.
- You must have documentation of your registration for classes with a start date no later than Winter 2010 in an approved culinary program.
- You must complete the NRAEF ServSafe program with a passing score of 90 or higher.
- Your culinary program instructor must submit a letter of recommendation on school letterhead on your behalf.
